Course Layout (Duration – 25 days)

Days 1 – 5

The first five days lays the foundation for basic communication. This includes self-introduction, conversational structures and basic grammar. Every 5th day is a practice day where students get a chance to revise and clarify doubts about what they learnt during the week.

Days 6 – 12

The following six days of the course focuses on grammar necessary for sentence creation. In this part, students are also introduced to some new vocabulary and idioms.

Days 13 – 20

In this session, grammar lessons of more advanced level are taught. The activities in this part gives emphasis on improving students' confidence in speaking and interacting.

Days 21 – 25

Once the students are equipped with knowledge in grammar and efficiency in speaking, the last five days of the course are aimed at giving students an opportunity to improve their presentation skills through engaging activities like group discussion, debate, role play and public speaking.

The course also has two assessment tests in its duration. The tests are conducted every 10th day where students are expected to take a one-hour test in grammar and speaking.
